Dear Bill,

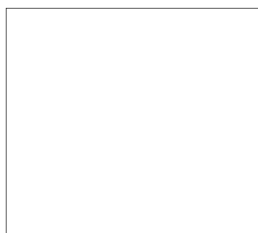

HANDBOOKS TO THE MODERN WORLD

Forgive my troubling you but you are the only person I know in the CIA. Can you help me in a small matter? We are reediting this series which I am sure you will have in your library because they were both useful and prestigious volumes.

The thing is I am told that you organisation has the best maps and wonder if you can send me or tell me how I can get for our covers overall maps of Western Europe (to be edited by [redacted] and the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe (to be edited by [redacted]). In return for them I shall certainly send you complimentary copies for your private library.

Laura (who sends her regards) and I spent a jolly weekend with Roger who was celebrating his victory in the media over the War Office. He was recognised by the British press for his role in Operation Fortitude not least, I may say, in the Southport Visiter.

Yours with good wishes and respects,
